Saving Sycamore: The School Shooting that Never Happened

JULY 22 | 8:30 AM - 9:30 AM

Molly Hudgens shares the story of how she prevented a school shooting on September 28, 2016. When a student with a fully-loaded semi-automatic handgun came to her with a plan to kill people on the school's campus, she told her, "I came to you because you're the only person who can talk me out of this." After a ninety-minute intervention, the student relinquished the weapon to Hudgens with no shots fired and no lives lost. She will walk the audience through the specifics of the incident that took place in her office and highlights previous training that affected her decision-making process during the event.

Molly Bradley Hudgens

Counselor, Sycamore Middle School Owner, Molly B. Hudgens Communications

Molly Bradley Hudgens is in her twentieth year as an educator in the Cheatham County School System as a school counselor at Sycamore Middle School in Pleasant View, TN. She has used her in-depth study, "Recognizing Red Flags," to train professionals in education, law enforcement, juvenile probation and court. On September 28, 2016, she talked a student with a loaded handgun from committing a mass shooting at Sycamore Middle School. Hudgens is the 2004-2005 and 2016-2017 Sycamore Middle School and Cheatham County Middle School Teacher of the Year and Congressional Medal of Honor Citizens Honor recipient for a Single Act of Heroism from the Congressional Medal of Honor Foundation in March of 2017. She is the 2017 recipient of the TN School Counseling Association's Phoebe White Award for Excellence in School Counseling.
